Standard Operating Procedure (SOP) of Mechanism of Internal Assessment and Grievances Redressal

1. Mechanism Overview:-

The components for internal assessment vary from subject to subject according to the guidelines of the affiliating university. The list of components involved in the internal assessment of undergraduate programs for the faculties of Science & Technology and Humanities are provided below and are properly communicated to students well in advance.

Components of Internal Assessment: -

Sr. No.	Pattern	Components of Internal Assessment
1	CGS	1. Unit test exam 2. Assignment/ Project Assignment 3. Seminar/ Group Discussion/ Study Tour / Industrial Visit/ Visits to educational Institutes / research organisation/ field work, etc.
2	CBCS	1. Skill Enhancement Module Attendance/ Activity/ Activity Report/ Internal Viva voce/ MCQ Test/ Study Tour/ Project/ Seminar/ Assignment/ Survey/ etc.

The college maintains a time-bound and efficient mechanism for Internal Assessment and Grievances Redressal. The process involves multiple levels of grievance redressal, starting from the department level and escalating to the college level if necessary.

2. Departmental Grievance Redressal Committee (DGRC) :-

The DGRC consists of all department faculty members, including the course teacher, and is chaired by the Head of the Department. The composition of committee members is given in annexure 1. This committee addresses grievances related to internal assessment grades.

3. Procedure for Submitting Grievances :-

- Initial Complaint: Students dissatisfied with internal assessment results should first approach the concerned faculty for clarification.
- Formal Submission: If unresolved, the student may submit a written grievance to the Chairman of the DGRC.
- Evaluation Process: The DGRC evaluates the grievance, discusses with relevant department, and issues recommendations within one month of receiving the complaint.
- Escalation: If unresolved, the grievance may be escalated to the academic monitoring committee, consisting of members, the internal examination committee, and the Principal. The final settlement is aimed to be within three months.
- False Complaints: Proven false complaints may lead to disciplinary action against the complainant.

4. Grievance Redressal Process :-

- The committee handles grievances individually submitted by students and does not consider collective grievances.
- Upon receiving a complaint, the DGRC reviews relevant documents and discusses the issue with concerned department.
- The committee submits its recommendations to the applicant and/or the principal.

5. Internal Assessment and Examination Mechanism :-

- Guidelines Adherence: The department adheres to university guidelines for conducting internal assessments and semester-end exams.
- Assessment Components: At the semester's start, students are informed about assessment components and schedules.
- Internal Assessment schedule: The internal assessment schedule aligns with the academic calendar and is communicated well in advance.
- Evaluation: Faculty evaluate internal assessments within five days, and HOD randomly verifies a sample of evaluated answer sheets for quality assurance.
- Student Verification: Evaluated answer sheets are returned to students for review, and grievances are addressed immediately.
- Marks Upload: Internal assessment marks are uploaded on the university web portal as required. These are signed by the concerned course teacher and verified by HOD.

6. Assignment, Seminar and Practical Evaluation :-

- Assignment and Seminar Evaluation: Assignment and seminar are evaluated by the course teacher, focusing on originality and real-life applicability.
- Lab Records: Students must submit lab records regularly, noting observations and validating theoretical aspects.
- Day-to-Day Performance: Daily performance is assessed based on regularity, performance, viva, and promptness in submitting records.

All department students are encouraged to familiarize themselves with this SOP and utilize the grievance redressal mechanisms responsibly. The department strives to maintain academic integrity and fairness in all assessments.
